lecturer Dr. Homer T. Wilson Opera House Thursday evening Jan. 17th.

You can get a fine lamp and the Covington Commonwealth one year for only $1.00 at the Blue Grass Grocery. A fine Christmas present for anyone.

Dr. Homer T. Wilson will deliver the last of the series of lectures at the Opera House here on the night of Thursday Jan. 17th. Dr. Wilson's lecture is entitled "Sparks from the Anvil" and is said to be highly entertaining.

Doc Rocker a negro was shot through a lung on last Monday night down on Rocker Row. The affair is a little mysterious and the shooter has not been identified. Rocker says that the shot came from the railroad track nearby and he apposes it was accidental.

There will be no preaching at the Presbyterian church on next Sunday morning, as the congregation is invited to unite with the Baptist church in farwell services to its pastor, Rev. G. F.
Hamblin, who will leave in a few days for the foreign missionary field. Mr. Hamblin will preach at the Presbyterian church on Sunday night where union services will be held.

A rather small audience gathered at the Opera House last Friday evening to witness the appearance of Miss Laura Ry and Miss Edith C. Tyler, who have a number of selections from Shakespeare and Jane Meredith but those who did attend were well pleased with the evening's entertainment. The young ladies in their work show the effects of careful training in the development of a natural talent which may make for them a name in historic honors. Miss Ry is especially good in Julius lighter parts which she interpreted and all her selections were well received by the audience.

The sale of live stock and other personal property of E. B.
Brown which took place at his former home near town on last Friday attracted a large crowd of bidders and spectators. Capt.
D. D. English was the auctioneer and the sale was successful. A few of the more interesting items sold high as old hogs and cattle.
Jersey milk cows brought from $25 to $45 per head and calves sold well. Horses were not in very good demand and those that were were low. Corn in the city sold at $2.00 per bushel and other feed and grain brought good market prices. Farming implements and household furniture brought fairly good prices.
The sale amounted to about $75-$800. Mr. Brown gives possession of the farm to the new owner.
Mr. Brown, on Jan. 1st and the former with his family will move shortly to Indianapolis to live.

Mr. C. H. Harmon who has been in the Livery business here for several years has sold his good will and livery outfit to Messrs J. Rutledge Wharton and E. S. Mayes who will continue the business at the same old stand. The consideration was $2000. Mr. Harmon has several fine horses, one survey and one buggy and some harness. Messrs Wharton and Mayes are both enterprising young men with large number of friends and they will doubtless make a success of the livery business. In retiring from the livery business Mr. Harmon requests us to say through these columns that he wishes to thank the people generally for their liberal patronage and kindness in the past and hopes to always retain the esteem and good will of the citizens of this community.

Count Day Sales.

One of the largest crowds of the year was on the streets Monday, and business was lively, with everybody. The live stock market was fairly alive and there was plenty of trading done. The auctioneers were busy and the following sales were reported by S. M. Campbell, one fat cow $35.25; 11 head of hogs at $22-$30 each; one calf $27.75; one cow $20; one old milk cow $19.75; one fat cow $20; 11 two-year-old steers at $30.50; eight same at $35; 10 of same at $32; 12 yearling heifers at $16.20; three heifers at $15.50; one old mare for $28; 32 head of sheep at $4.49 each; eight cattle at $25.05; one old mare, $20.25; one horse, $70-$80; one horse, $50; mare, $20; mare, $19; horse, $42.

Col. R. B. Wayne reports the following: one two-year-old heifer or, $24; three heifers at $24, $25 and $14; one mare $24; 10 head of sheep, $13.50; one mare $20; one heifer $20.

ManSHIP.

Those who have enjoyed the privilege of a laugh with Gov.
Boyd Taylor and have admired the beauty and deeper meaning of the things expressed by the Hon. Alf in his political problems have been trying to decide which of the two is the better have put that question aside now as being immaterial. They have since last Wednesday evening had someone else to admire and other bright and witty sayings to recall and over which to reflect. Hon. Luther ManSHIP is a man of less careful return than the other two who preceded him in this lecture course and he was an entire stranger to perhaps every one of the large audience who heard him at this place, but he had not proceeded far with his lecture before he had captured the imagination and had everyone in friend. ManSHIP is an entertainer who is well up in his line of business. He possesses the face, the manner and the expression of a born actor and his work shows a finished artist in that line. His lecture sounded in many ways like those of those who had preceded him and that it would be profitable for one to remember and store away but his strong point is his character acting. His interpretation of the old time before the war negro character is great and he displayed this accomplishment to great advantage in giving some stories from those great writers on negro topics, Opie Reed and Joel Chandler Harris. Mr. ManSHIP also showed his versatility by giving some other dialect stories and singing a song or two from the lyric and the "Dutch." He also gave for about two hours never for an instant did interest seem to lag. It is probable that an effort will be made to get ManSHIP to return to Springfield at a later date and if he does it is needless to say that he will speak to a full house.

Town Ordinances.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees on 25th of December 1900, the bill of Mr. T. J. Graves for the franchise for boring for natural gas was accepted. Also the following ordinances were adopted:

ORDINANCE.—The Board of Trustees of the town of Springfield, Ky., do ordain as follows: That before a itinerant person or persons shall be allowed to sell goods or merchandise of any kind in the limits of said town or they will first be required to pay a license fee of five ($5.00) dollars per day, and upon failure to take out said license he shall for each offense be fined five ($5.00) dollars and shall in addition pay one ($1.00) dollar for each day the same remains unpaid. This 25th day of Dec. 1900.
